Let all that has obscured the truth in your most holy mind be undone for you, & stand in Grace before the Father, He will give Himself to you, as He has always done // Giving Himself all He knows, & so all knowledge // For what He knows not to be, & is not to be given // Ask not to be forgiven, for it has already been accomplished // Ask rather how to learn forgiveness, & restore what always was to your unforgiving mind // Atonement becomes real & visible to them that use it // On earth is your only function, & you must learn that all you want is here //

T 13 I 4.

To feel guilty is to learn it // For in the end, whatever form it takes, guilt arises from the failure to fulfill the function in God's Mind - all of yours // And escape from guilt by failing to fulfill the function He gave?

T 13 I 5.

I need a wider creation to do what must be done before knowledge would be meaningful. // God knows no barriers; neither did He make them // Where I release them, they are gone // God's Son fail, nor never has anything //

Decide — God is right & I am wrong about yourself // He created you out of Himself, but still within Him // He knows what I am // Remember — you owe no record to Him // You are not worthy of His Holiness, nor anyone worthy of His perfect love // Fail is a function of living in a loveless place made out of darkness & deceit, for this is darkness & deception indeed // Fail yourself, but instead, offer to God & your His blameless Son // For a small gift of appreciation for His love God will Himself exchange it for His //

= Before ~ make any decisions for yourself, Remember — ~ decided against ~ function ^ Heaven. ~ consid. carefully whether ~ want to make decisions here // ~ function here > only decide against deciding what ~ want, ^ accept. — ~ do not know // Here, then, I ~ decide what ~ should do?
